Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mr. Thompson is requesting renewal of the reporting modification that would exempt him from disclosing his personal residential address information, including street address, parcel number, and legal description, on his Personal Financial Affairs Statement for 2012. • Mr. Thompson is employed as a Senior Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for the Thurston County Prosecutor's Office. He has served as an attorney in the criminal section for the past 25 years. • Mr. Thompson stated that as a prosecuting attorney, he has prosecuted and convicted many violent offenders, including those involved in robbery, violent assault, attempted homicide, and homicide. Many cases involve firearms and other violent weapons used to assault and/or murder the victims. • Mr. Thompson stated that he is concerned for his safety and that of his family if his residential address were available for public inspection. He stated that he has taken several measures to attempt to insure the confidentiality of his residential address. • Mr. Thompson cited instances in which felons and other individuals with adverse interests against prosecutors and criminal justice system employees have used public records requests to attempt to obtain address and other personal information of prosecutors, office staff, crime victims, and witnesses in Thurston County. He also cited ten instances, in his letter to the Commission, of news accounts chronicling violence involving current and former prosecuting attorneys throughout the country.

Other Issues	Mr. Thompson disclosed creditor information, payment terms, security given and mortgage amounts for his personal residence.
Staff Recommendations	Approve renewal of the reporting modification with no change.
