Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Judge Robinson is requesting a renewal of a reporting modification that would exempt her from disclosing the business customers that paid $10,000 or more during 2012 to K & H Printers-Lithographers, Inc. (K&H). • Judge Robinson’s spouse, Steven Hopp, is CFO and Senior Vice President of K&H. The company is based in Everett, Washington and provides printing, binding, and election services for business and government customers. • Judge Robinson stated that she does not hold a position with K&H, nor does she perform any duties for the entity. She stated she does not have access to customer lists. • Judge Robinson stated that the printing business is very competitive and K&H’s customer lists are proprietary information with independent economic value. She also stated that it would be very time consuming for the company to sort through their customer lists in order to determine which customers would be reportable. • Judge Robinson stated that she would recuse herself in any case that involves K&H, their customers that she knows about, or any of their business interests.
Other Issues	Judge Robinson disclosed all of the governmental entities for whom K&H does work. She reported all of the business customers of which she is aware. She also disclosed the customers appearing on K&H’s website.
Staff Recommendations	Approve renewal of the reporting modification with no change.
