Explanation of Rule(s)	Applicants whose spouse or registered domestic partner creates a reporting obligation for the applicant. When an applicant is required to report the activities of an entity solely because the applicant's spouse or registered domestic partner held an office, directorship, general partnership or ownership interest in the entity and the applicant does not have direct knowledge of the information that must be reported, the applicant may be allowed to satisfy the disclosure requirements of RCW 42.17A.710 (1)(g)(ii) and WAC 390-24-020 by disclosing reportable customers from whom compensation in excess of the disclosure threshold established under RCW 42.17A.710 (1)(g)(ii) has been received as follows: (A) All payments made by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office to the entity; (B) The business and other governmental customers or clients of the applicant's spouse/domestic partner and of the entity of which the applicant is aware; and (C) Any other business and other governmental customers or clients of the entity whose identities are known to the applicant and whose interests are significantly affected by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office. The commission may apply (e)(i) through (iii) of this subsection when the applicant's spouse/domestic partner is a lawyer, judge, or motor vehicle dealer. Other. An applicant may be exempted from reporting information otherwise required under RCW 42.17A.710 which would constitute a manifestly unreasonable hardship in a particular case, when the circumstances presented would not indicate any actual or potential conflict with the proper performance of the duties of the office sought or held.
Supporting Documents (attached)	 ☑ Current F-1 (filed April 14, 2022) ☑ Candidate F-1 (filed May 29, 2021) ☑ Modification Application

Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	 Ms. Shui is requesting a current and retroactive reporting modification that would exempt her from disclosing reportable information specifically connected to her spouse and her spouse's personal financial information, on her Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report) covering the twelve months prior to her becoming a candidate and the F-1 filed as an elected official covering calendar year 2021.
	• Ms. Shui stated that she is unaware of most of her spouse's income and financial information, that the two of them have lived in separate states for several years and file independent tax returns.
	 Ms. Shui stated that her and her spouse jointly own a piece of real estate and have at least two joint bank accounts used for expenses related to the jointly owned property and for the care of their dependents.
	 Ms. Shui has disclosed her financial information, the jointly owned or operated finances, and the limited information she is aware of regarding her spouse.
Other Issues	Ms. Shui has agreed to recuse herself if a matter came before her involving a conflict of interest between her personal financial interests and Bellevue School District 405.
	Ms. Shui's request could be granted for the duration of her current term as allowed in RCW 42.17A.120(1).
