Explanation of Rule(s)	Applicants whose spouse or registered domestic partner creates a reporting obligation for the applicant. When an applicant is required to report the activities of an entity solely because the applicant's spouse or registered domestic partner held an office, directorship, general partnership or ownership interest in the entity and the applicant does not have direct knowledge of the information that must be reported, the applicant may be allowed to satisfy the disclosure requirements of RCW 42.17A.710 (1)(g)(ii) by disclosing reportable customers from whom compensation in excess of the disclosure threshold established under RCW 42.17A.710 (1)(g)(ii) has been received as follows: (A) All payments made by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office to the entity; (B) The business and other governmental customers or clients of the applicant's spouse/domestic partner of which the applicant is aware; and (C) Any other business and other governmental customers or clients of the entity whose identities are known to the applicant and whose interests are significantly affected by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office. The commission may apply (e)(i) through (iii) of this subsection when the applicant's spouse/domestic partner is a lawyer, judge, or motor vehicle dealer.
Supporting Documents (attached)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Current F-1 (filed March 21, 2022) <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Modification Application <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Prior order (if renewal) – June 24, 2021

Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Joseph Pratt is requesting a renewal of a partial reporting modification that would exempt him from disclosing reportable information related to his spouse’s law firm clients on his Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report) filed during calendar year 2021. Publicly disclosing this information would cause an unreasonable hardship, and competitive disadvantage, for the law firm, Madrona Law Group, PLLC.• Mr. Pratt provided a list of the law firm clients of which he is aware as part of his current F-1 report.
Other Issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mr. Pratt stated that there is no relationship between Madrona Law Group, PLLC and King Fire Protection Dist. 40 or any agencies it serves.• Mr. Pratt has agreed to recuse himself if a matter came before him involving a conflict of interest between Madrona Law Group, PLLC and King Fire Protection District 40.• Mr. Pratt has reviewed his initial reporting modification request and has certified that there are no changes to the facts related to his request.• Mr. Pratt’s request could be granted through his current term of office as allowed in RCW 42.17A.120(1).
